

2026 Mary Ann Beuoy Scholarship Guidelines

Mary Ann Crooks Beuoy was born August 13, 1935 and graduated in 1953 from Eaton High School in Eaton, IN. “Ann” was the name she went by, during her illustrious teaching career, as a Biology, Life Sciences and English teacher for Liberty-Perry Schools. She attended Ball State University to accrue her Bachelor and Masters Degree in Biology, Zoology and Life Sciences. Ann taught at Center High School from 1963 to 1967. Center High School then consolidated with Selma High School in 1967 to form Wapahani High School. Ann taught at Wapahani High School from 1967 until her retirement in 1992. Ann was a caring, “no-nonsense” teacher, who cared deeply for others and enjoy helping and giving to others. She loved animals, especially having grown up on a farm. Ann passed away peacefully on May 3, 2025 in Iowa. Her legacy will live on, for many years to come.

The family of Mary Ann Beuoy has established the Mary Ann Beuoy Memorial Scholarship to be awarded to a graduating Wapahani High School senior in late spring of 2026. The applicant must be accepted to Ball State University, in honor of Mary Ann's attendance and graduation.

Winning applicant will receive a personalized 4” x 8” Engraved Brick to be placed into the 2nd Brick Walkway in the front lawn around the flagpole of Wapahani High School.

One non-renewable scholarship of $1,000 will be awarded to the student who demonstrates the following characteristics:

1. Possess a strong moral character.
2. High academic achievement and expressed desire to pursue higher learning to the completion of a bachelor’s degree at Ball State Univeristy.

3. Active volunteerism in community service, participation in extra-curricular activities and/or sportsmanship.
4. Competent writing skills.
5. Shows concern and caring for others.
6. Have a compassion for animals.

The scholarship will be presented at the Wapahani High School award's day in May 2026, as well as at the Wapahani graduation ceremony in June 2026. The award money will be sent directly to the Financial Aid Office of the college or university chosen by the recipient. The award winner will be expected to supply his or her student ID number and other pertinent information in a timely manner.

Applicants will be evaluated on the following criteria. The applicant must:
